

All-wiggling Lulus to tour

MOVE over Hi-5 and The Wiggles – there is a new children's entertainment group in town.

The Lulus Show, developed and based in Perth, will embark on its first tour these school holidays.

Director Irene Carbone described The Lulus Show as a “high energy, all-singing, all-dancing” interactive show, with fun and lovable characters.

“The characters have been developed and designed using an early childhood specialist to ensure that there is always an underlying educational message,” she said. “The Lulus team believes theatre and performance is an ideal avenue to educate.”

Irene joined The Lulus Show about 12 months ago and said the group had done a few appearances around Perth, but the coming tour would be the first full-length shows.

“We can't wait to get out there and share it with children around Perth,” she said.

“Everyone who is involved is enthusiastic about every aspect.”
