

High energy kids show

ENTERTAINMENT for children has become big business and The Lulus are the latest initiative to hit the market.

The group of theatre and early childhood specialists use song, dance, mime, art, storytelling and interaction in a fast-paced show targeted at kids aged 0-8.

The show boasts high energy, dancing and singing and will be in Bunbury during the coming school holidays.

Lu Girl and Lu Boy will travel from Lulu Island and will bring their friends — Spike the sporty lizard, Neuro the clever robot and Fin the loveable shark — to join in the fun.

The show is the latest in edu-tainment and encourages the kids to get involved.

The Lulus Show — Welcome to Lulu Island — will be at the South West Italian Club, Bunbury, on Tuesday, October 3. Tickets are available through www.bocsticketing.com.au or on 9484 1133.
